Progression:- After the first round, couples 1a and 1b will have moved to the bottom and will have changed sides, the others will have moved up one place. If the dance is done 3 times, all will be home, but on the opposite side. If it is done 6 times, all will be in original places.

- A1     1 – 8     All Ladies Chain (Scottish style with open left hand turns) with opposite couple and back, finishing with Men back to back in centre. Let go hands.
- A2     1 – 8     Making two circles one on each side of the set (i.e. three Men in line joining with three Women in line), all circle left half way; partners turn with both hands once and a quarter into original set formation.
- B1     1 – 2     Couples 1a and 1b meet each other in the centre;
        3 – 6     Couples 1a and 1b lead opposite up the middle;
        7 – 14    Couples 1a and 1b cast outside 2nd and 3rd couples to the bottom of the set where they circle left half way; while 2nd and 3rd couples (a and b) change places with opposites, passing right shoulder and turning right into a circle of eight, circle left half way, ending with couple 2a facing couple 3a, couple 2b facing couple 3b (2nd couples face down, 3rd couples face up, Woman is on Man's left in each case):

- B2     1 – 6     In this position, all change places with opposites, passing right shoulder, move backwards passing partner right shoulder and forward passing opposite again right shoulder and turn right into right hand star (the three stars are in a triangle);
- 7 – 14    All turn single left; left hand star; turn single right, manoeuvring into lines as at first, but in progressed places.
